

Video-photographers/editors for Kringvarp Føroya

Kringvarp Føroya has three vacancies for video-photographers/editors. All positions are to be filled immediately. We are, however prepared to wait for you a couple of months.

Work area

You will become part of a team of photographers/editing-technicians, working in news, culture, with children's and youth material, as well as sports. The work includes filming, editing and audio, on TV, radio and web. Working hours change.

Requirements

You must have relevant media education, media experience, and/or equally relevant education/experience. You must have good technical skills and knowledge of basic applications for media production. Experience as TV- producer is an advantage.

We offer

- An exciting and challenging job in a creative environment
- A job you can give your own personal touch
- A job that gives you insight into the Faroese society

We expect that

- You are good at organizing your work and keeping schedules
- You are creative, imaginative and contributing
- You work fast and you are well functioning while under pressure
- You have good collaborative skills, have patience and you are able to work efficiently in changing conditions
- You are positive, diligent and you love to tell good stories

Terms of employment

Positions are full-time, and the terms are in accordance with agreement between Starvsmannafelagið and Fíggjarmálaráðið. Over time changes may occur in the job description. Trial period is three months.

Deadline

Applications with CV, diplomas, recommendations and other relevant documents should be collected in one PDF, and sent to umsokn@kvf.fo by 15 January 2018, with “Miðlatøkningur” in the subject field

Further information

Should you wish further information, please contact Hjallgrím Hentze, technical leader, +298 296601 or hen@kvf.fo.

Kringvarp Føroya is an independent public institution functioning separate from the political system. The institution has a chief executive officer with reference to a board of seven members. The activities are financed by user fees from all citizens and companies as well as by income from advertisements, sponsorships, and games. Kringvarp Føroya consists of four departments: News, Culture, Technical, and Administration. The number of full time employees is approximately 80.