F A R O E I S L A N D S

F E S T I V A L

OF CLASSICAL AND CONTEMPORARY MUSIC

JUNE 4TH – AUGUST 27TH 2017

Welcome to SUMMARTÓNAR 2017

This year we celebrate the 26th Summartónar festival

This year it is 25 years since the Association of Faroese Composers (Felagið Føroysk Tónaskøld) organized the very first Summartónar festival. Summartónar 2016 – the 25th festival – focused on Faroese music.

For 2017 we go global. The Association of Faroese Composers is a member of the International Society of Contemporary Music (ISCM) and this year we will hear music from six continents, including works by composers from Argentina, USA, New Zealand, Europe, Japan, and South Africa.

Come and join us on our musical journey as we open our windows onto the world.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF SUMMARTÓNAR

Beginning in 1984, Faroese composers started organizing concerts of their own music together with works by international composers. After establishing the Association of Faroese Composers (Felagið Føroysk Tónaskøld) in 1987, these concerts became more regular, especially with the annual Spring Concert and a series of concerts over the summer in collaboration with the Listasavn Føroya. In 1991 a concert with works by several Faroese composers was presented at the St Magnus Festival in Orkney. After participating at a festival in a community comparable with the Faroe Islands, we decided to establish a similar festival the following year in the Faroes. We used the name Summartónar from the beginning and in 1992 15 concerts were held in Tórshavn, Kirkjubøur and Runavík with compositions by William Heinesen, Edvard Nyholm Debess, Alti K. Petersen, Pauli í Sandagerði, Heðin Meitil, Bjarni Restorff, Ólavur Jøkladal, H.J. Højgaard, Esmar Jacobsen, Sunleif Rasmussen, Kristian Blak, Richard Stanley and Graeme Rudd in addition to classical repertoire.

Since these early years, the musical scene in the Faroes has gone from strength to strength and our festival reflects the diversity and creativity of today's musicians who bring Faroese music to the world and international music to the Faroes.

TUESDAYS & SUNDAYS, JUNE–AUGUST

SPECIAL EVENTS:

CONCERTO GROTTU

During the last several years, Birgir Enni, skipper of the vessel NORÐLÝSIÐ, and Kristian Blak have arranged trips with musicians and audiences to caves, into which – weather permitting – one can enter in smaller boats, utilizing the natural sounds and unique acoustics of the caves as integral parts of the music.

These concerts have taken place in collaboration with Summartónar, which brings visiting musicians in addition to local performers into these unique Faroese concert halls.

See programme for these concerts on Tuesdays from June 6th to August 15th – and Sundays from June 18th to August 20th

NORÐLÝSIÐ, Schooner, departs from Vágsbotnur, near Bryggjubakka 14, Tórshavn at 1 p.m.
– Returns to Tórshavn approx 6 p.m. depending on wind and current.

Tickets at TUTL shop, Niels Finsens gøta 9c,

BIOGRAPHIES

ALDA MAGNA comprises four musicians who all live in the Faroe Islands. The compositions the group perform are atmospheric wanderings into abstract soundscapes with references to historical and contemporary music.

ALDUBÁRAN In 1995 seven young Faroese musicians formed an ensemble with the main purpose to perform and promote Faroese music. This ensemble is Aldubáran. Today Aldubáran has 14 members playing the flute, clarinet, bassoon, horn, trumpet, trombone, violin, viola, guitar and piano. This rather untraditional combination of instruments makes for great diversity in concerts and gives scope for composers. Aldubáran has commissioned and premiered a vast number of works by Faroese and foreign composers which have been well received by the press and public. Albeit Faroese music plays a major part in their programmes the masterpieces of the music literature are equally important. They have performed works such as Schoenberg's Pierrot Lunaire, Stravinsky's Septet, Octet, and A Soldier's Tale, and Schubert's Octet.

ANDRAS & DÁVUR A friendship that started in Tórshavn Brass Band. They went their separate ways through Europe, and after many years in different countries they have now put their heads together again as a duo project. At their first performance at Summartónar 2016, they wrote original works, as well as adapted music from their classical music heritage. In 2017 they will again play together some original works, and they will be a part of ISCM week. Dávur lives in Glasgow and works in the Royal Scottish National Orchestra. Andras lives in Denmark and works in the Royal Lifeguard Band, and is a member of Athelas Sinfonietta and Ensemble Scenatet.

ANDREAS RESTORFF studied cello at the Royal Danish Academy, Copenhagen. Since then he has been a regular cellist in the Faroese Symphony Orchestra and has recently also played pop music with artists such as Teitur and Eivør.

ANNA KATRIN ØSSURSDÓTTIR EGILSTRØÐ Inspired by raw nature and big city life, Anna Katrin sculpts her voice in an electronic landscape of soundscapes and beats. With songs written in Faroese and English. Normally Anna Katrin performs with vocals and electronics but for the Concerto Grotto concert it will be her pure, naked voice that meets with the cave and the ocean's roar. Anna Katrin is also known as the singer in the band Valravn.

ARNOLD LUDVIG is a Faroese composer and the 2005 Atlantic Music Event, award winner for Best bassist. In 1992, he studied Jazz Performance at FIH music school in Iceland, was awarded a scholarship for Best performer, and furthered his studies in jazz at McGill University, in Montreal, Canada, from 1993–95. His cd releases on Tutl Records include, Arnold Ludvig Sextet, VOYAGES, in 2013 and ICELAND, in 2016, both have received great reviews from DK and FO.

ARNOLD LUDVIG QUARTET based in the Faroe Islands, was founded in 2016 as an extension to his sextet which he founded in Denmark back in 2012. Arnold started playing the sextet repertoire in trio last year and currently writing new music for the quartet to be performed at Summartónar 2017. The style is Nordic melodic jazz composed by Arnold Ludvig.

BLUE COAT BRASS BAND plays compositions for brass instruments and drum kit by drummer Rógvi á Rógvu.

DUOH Jeanette H. Balland and Charlotte H. Andersson are both educated saxophonists; CA with additional song- and organist education, JB as soloist. An unusual constant alternation of sound and form is expressed through the ensemble's instrumentation and temperament. The duo has chosen to place special emphasis on the baritone saxophones warm, powerful and poetic character.

ELIN BRIMHEIM HEINESEN is a singer-songwriter well-known in the Faroes since the 70's. She is a soloist, but has performed with several artists – the collaboration with composer/producer Kári Jacobsen being the most notable. Elin is joined by two skilful musicians, guitarist Leivur Thomsen and bass-player Arnold Ludvig. Read more at: <http://heinesen.fo/>

GUÐRÍÐ HANSDÓTTIR is a Faroese Musician/Artist. Her sound is a mixture of pop/folk and electronic music. Her main instruments are vocals, guitar and flute. She has released 4 solo albums and is also known as one half of the Faroese Electro Duo, Byrta. Apart from being a solo artist and member of Byrta, she is also a member of the Female Vocal Quintet, Kata. The Quintet performs modern interpretations of traditional Faroese songs.

HEDIN ZISKA DAVIDSEN is a rock guitarist with other interests such as metal and jazz music. As the bandleader of Tjant he composes all the material and has released 3 albums. Heðin tours widely with his own band and with bands such as Yggdrasil and Marius Ziska.

HERLUF LÜTZEN & AGNAR LAMHAUGE The guitarist Herluf Lützen has been playing jazz and rock music for many years. Agnar Lamhauge plays the double bass and the electric bass in this group. He is also a member of the Faroese Symphony Orchestra and is known as a member of the legendary folk group Enekk. Herluf and Agnar will be playing their own compositions. Hernan Lugano (ARG), HERNAN LUGANO Hernán is an Argentine pianist and composer. Born in Buenos Aires, he is a self-taught pianist who merges classical traditions, Argentine music and jazz. From the beginning he was devoted to composing and performing his own music, performing piano solo concerts on Argentine and European stages and with his most emblematic ensembles, such as Trio Semblanza, HL TangoWalk Quintet, HL TangoJazz Trio and Latin Groove Orquestra.

HETTARHER (FO) is an electronic/acoustic band based in Tórshavn. The two members Andreas Restorff and Torleik Mortensen have managed to compose a whole spectrum of timbres from acoustic instruments and electronic equipment in a way that draws you into a world where minimalism meets spectralism and nature meets industrialism.

HIMMERLAND Danish based Folk & Roots fusion band launched in 2010, including band members from Denmark (Eskil Romme), Poland (Andrzej Krejniuk), Sweden (Jens Ulvsand) and Ghana (Ayi Solomon). During the last years activities in UK, the band has worked with local soloists like Nuala Kennedy, Eilidh Shaw, and now Mairi Campbell who's touring with Himmerland at several occasions during 2017.

JÁKUP ELI JOENSEN (b.1982) is a gifted Faroese singer/songwriter. In 2011 he released the album, Kom við mer, and one of the songs "Vanja", became a hit in the Faroes that year.

JANUS Á HÚSAGARÐI (b. 1971) grew up in Tórshavn. He plays guitar, mandolin and sings. In 2014 Janus began writing his own songs, lyrics and music. Janus' music is inspired by Irish folk/rock.

JÓSEF ZACHARIASSEN (b. 1995) is a Faroese pianist. Mainly, Jósef performs classical music as a soloist and chamber musician, but also performs in a jazz/funk setting. Jósef is currently a student of Erling Ragnar Eriksen at the Music Institute in Stavanger, Norway.

JOŽE KOTAR & LUCA FERRINI Jože Kotar became principal clarinetist of the RTV Slovenia Symphony Orchestra in 2007 after serving in that role at the Slovenian Philharmonic Orchestra for twelve years. Luca Ferrini, pianist, harpsichordist and organist from Trieste (Italy) performed in more than thousand concerts as soloist, chamber musician and with orchestra in Europe, Asia and Central America.

KENNETH JONES & BIRGITTE SCHNAKENBURG started to work and perform regularly together in 2008. Together they have performed many concert recitals in the Faroe Islands as well as in Denmark and London. In 2011 they released their first CD together through Tutl Tíðin Rennur, in 2015 the second CD Smilla.

KRISTIAN BLAK is involved in a wide range of musical activities. He composes for international classical ensembles, performs locally and tours internationally as a musician and bandleader with jazz, folk and world music groups.

KVONN is a group of musicians from the Faroe Islands that plays traditional and contemporary folk music from Scandinavia. Kvonn's repertoire includes music composed by the band members, as well as traditional tunes.

MONKEYRAT & THE HENTZE HORNS Songwriter & vocalist, Anna Iachino with superb bassist & composer Arnold Ludvig deliver multi-genre music rooted mainly in Funk. In 2010, MonkeyRat released their 1st cd, Fuck The Jante Law, followed by Sunshine in 2012 to great reviews from DK, UK, CA, & FO and in 2016 they released 3 new singles & teamed up with the kickin' funky Hentze Horns.

NORDIC GUITAR DUO (DE/FO) As the name implies, is a guitar duo consisting of Alvi Joensen and Max Näpel. They met at the Malmö Academy of Music, from where they have three academic degrees each. Their musical journey started out in latin-american music and has since then broadened a lot. On this year's edition of Summartónar they are going to perform some of their own music and music written for them.

NORÐAN Celtic harp & Nordic fiddle. Faroese violinist Angelika Nielsen and German harpist Thomas Loeffke combine in their duo programme their own compositions – a hybrid of Celtic and Nordic music – with traditional music from the Faroe Islands and Ireland. Both perform internationally with Norland Wind and various other groups. Their CD, Norðan is out on Tutl. www.nordan.fo

ÓLAVUR JAKOBSEN Largely self-taught as a classical guitarist, he commenced his studies at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen with guitarist Ingolf Olsen. Ólavur continued his studies in Paris with French guitarist Roland Dyens and masterclasses with Sir Julian Bream and David Russell. Ólavur is co-founder of the Faroese chamber ensemble Aldubáran, and divides his time between teaching, performing, touring and promoting Faroese music.

PAULI POULSEN TRIO Pauli Poulsen Trio performs improvisational music inspired by modern, American jazz.

QUATUOR AMÔN The Amôn Quartet was formed in 2008 by four fascinating musicians, wishing to pass on, share, and communicate their passion for music. They began at the Royal Conservatory of Brussels in the class of Guy Danel and shortly after joined the training ProQuartet-CEMC in Paris, and residence of the Queen Elizabeth Music Chapel, which allowed them to receive the guidance of among others the Artemis Quartet. Recognized in Belgium, Amôn Quartet receives funding from the French community of Belgium. In October 2015, the Quartet was invited to Asia, performing 15 concerts in China and Hong Kong. For their new season of concerts in 2017, they will play in Bozar, Flagey, (Brussels), Liège, Ostende, Concertgebouw Brugge, tour in Denmark, Poland, Italy and Sweden.

ROKKUR is a project by Heðin Ziska Davidsen, Reuben Fenemore and Sarah Albu. It is a performance based on an old tool for spinning yarn. This tool is called "Rokkur" in Faroese. As we use this tool to make wool into yarn and yarn into garment, these processes will also produce sound. Both their natural acoustic sounds, but in addition to these sounds, we use electronics, to augment the sounds and add other sounds, making a bedrock of sound, upon which musical improvisations are formed.

SKÚLASON/ELIASSEN/POULSEN brings together three active musicians from the North Atlantic. Ingi Bjarni Skúlason (piano) and Bárður Reinert Poulsen (bass) met at the Young Nordic Jazz Comets festival in Trondheim, performing in bands representing respectively the Faroe Islands and Iceland. After hearing each other play, they wanted to do a collaboration, and asked the eminent Icelandic drummer, Magnús Trygvason Eliassen, to join. They play original compositions by Poulsen and Skúlason, bringing the thoughts towards Nordic Folk and jazz, charged with improvisation and creative interplay.

SPACE INVADERS was born in 2015 on the national fest Ólavssøka. It was formed to make an improvisation performance for the exhibition "Rúmd/Space" by sculptour Brandur Patursson. The group is five musicians, each with their monophonic analog synthesizer: Heðin Ziska Davidsen, Knút Háberg Eysturstein, Sakaris Emil Joensen, Mattias Kapnas og Per I. Højgaard Petersen.

STANLEY SAMUELSEN / PAOLO PRINCIPI

Stanley Samuelsen's melodic songs are accompanied by his impeccable fingerstyle guitar playing. In 1964 in the village of Fuglafjørður Stanley's stage performance career began with a local band. Stanley went solo, and has released 7 albums - the latest being Folk Songs From the Faroe Islands, where you will find some of his most essential songs on one recording. His solo career is international. Paolo Principi (b. 1966) is a musician, composer and sound designer. He begins to play the accordion at the age of 7 and continues for more than ten years with Italian maestro Rolando Bolognini. He discovers jazz music, the piano and electronic sounds. He study composition and orchestra conduction. He designs a Vintage Accordion, a virtual instrument, based on a Italian accordion made in Castelfidardo, Italy in the 60s.

SVABONIO (UK/FO) was formed to perform music from the 18th-century notebook of Tórshavn resident and polymath, J.C. Svabo (1746-1824). The project is now in its second year and features concerts of new arrangements for this Anglo-Faroese quartet of clarinet, horn, violin and guitar.

TJANT is the improvisational group of Heðin Ziska Davidsen. The lineup has been changing slightly from year to year, but very consistently, Heðin has been on guitar and compositions, Mikael Blak on bass and Brandur Jacobsen on drums. Tjant has released three albums, featuring these three musicians with the addition of various other musician. The musical expression has been changing from album to album and their latest release, Røtur og Trø, Per Ingvaldur Højgaard Petersen was added to the line-up. This album also saw the group venture into an electronic-rock environment for their improvisations and explorations. This complements Heðins background as a rock/metal guitarist and his fascination for electronics and experimental music.

TOKE LUND CHRISTIANSEN & BIRGITTE SCHNAKENBURG (DK/FO) Toke Lund Christiansen made his debut in 1971 with his teacher Marcel Moyse conducting in Mozart's Flute Concerto in G major, and today he is First Solo Flautist in the Danish National Radio Symphony Orchestra. With this orchestra he has recorded

Carl Nielsen's flute concerto. He has also recorded works from the classical repertoire by composers like Leclair, Mattheson, Haydn, Beethoven and Schubert as well as French flute music by Ibert, Roussel and others. Toke Lund Christiansen is a lecturer at the Royal Danish Academy of Music. He has published many books with James Galway and, in collaboration with Professor Toshinori Ishihara, is planning a series of publications of classical and contemporary flute music.

YGGDRASIL is a Nordic ensemble based in the Faroe Islands. Formed in 1981 by composer & pianist Kristian Blak, Yggdrasil has a repertoire that encompasses a wide range of genres, from free jazz to classical. In 2017 Yggdrasil tours in South and North America, Africa and Europe.

WELCOME TO GJÁARGARÐUR

Live like a local

IMAGINE a hotel, that doesn't feel like a hotel. Where you instantly find you're at home, and not a paying customer. Where you make friends with the staff and become part of the family. You have just pictured living at Gjáargarður.

Nestled between the high mountains, the drive alone makes it worth a visit. In the lush summer months you may feel like you're in the Austrian Alps – in the winter, you are struggling to make it through Mordor. Once you're there just feel yourself unwind.

This is Gjáargarður. We like to call it a Guesthouse. You will like to call it Home.
